

Flying the Flag: British-Made Luxury Furniture Since 1967

Description

At Delcor, quality is at the heart of everything we do. Since 1967, we have been dedicated to creating bespoke luxury sofas and chairs that are a true testament to the skill and expertise of our team.

Nestled in a nook of scenic rural Northumberland, our workshop is where the magic happens. We carefully hand-select every piece of timber, ensuring that only the finest quality materials are used to create each and every one of our bespoke luxury sofas and chairs. Our woodshop is where we cut and shape all of the timber we use, with traditional techniques that have been passed down through the generations. Our commitment to quality starts with Delcor's furniture-making process, with the patience and precision that goes into hand-building our frames, a time-honoured process perfected over decades, a technique that breathes life into the 100% British-made bespoke luxury wooden frames. Each frame becomes a testament to the strength and quality of Delcor furniture. That's why we are proud to offer a 50-year guarantee on all our frames, our customers are investing in our truly bespoke pieces, that will last a lifetime.

But it isn't just the craft that distinguishes us, it's our unwavering commitment to creating furniture that's as unique as those who commission them. Our bespoke furniture service allows our customers to choose every detail of their luxury sofa or chair, to ensure their new piece is perfect for them. From choosing their 100% British-made frame and style to the premium fabrics they love from our luxury collection, and those all-important truly unique finishing touches.

Delcor furniture is not just a functional addition to a home; it is a narrative of the homeowner's style, a statement piece that adds character and charm to their home decor. And to ensure that this narrative is crafted to your exact preferences, our Design Experts will walk the extra mile with you, learning your style and helping to craft pieces that are as unique as you are.

When you invest in Delcor furniture, you can be confident that you are getting a truly bespoke piece of furniture that will become a cherished staple in your home.

Preserving the art of traditional furniture-making is a responsibility we shoulder with pride, a tradition we uphold with every bespoke sofa and chair that leaves our workshop. The unmatched attention to detail and quality that comes with each luxury piece is a Delcor tradition that can never be replicated by mass-produced furniture.

Whether you're looking for a bespoke luxury sofa, armchair, footstool, and more; our commitment to quality and furniture craft means that your piece will be a beautiful, 100% British-made bespoke home addition. For generations, Delcor has been a beacon of 100% British craft, a flag bearer of bespoke luxury furniture made in Britain, ensuring the knowledge and expertise in quality furniture remain at the centre of our showrooms.
