

Decorating with Teal

Description

Photo: Ambassador sofa. Traditional Knole styling with modern comfort.

Teal is a beautiful, rich colour to use around the home. It sits somewhere between blue and green on the colour spectrum, and comes in many hues from deep jade tones to lighter turquoise shades. It's an excellent choice for your furniture because it is a style that never dates.

Choosing your style

Explore our wonderful range of beautiful models. Styles to suit any home and decor. For traditional schemes why not try our classically elegant Edwardian sofa, or the Country house classic-The Chesterfield sofa. For more modern homes try our Metro sofa with its modernist angular good looks. Or something in-between? Our newest model the Fontaine sofa has effortless style with its pillow edged back cushions. Or The Atlas sofa for Scandi inspired design. All our models come in a variety of sizes and can also be customised if necessary. Add depth or reduce it, add height or length. And for perfect comfort that suits you perfectly, you can choose your seat and back interiors. For the final touches, you can choose your leg style and colour. Choosing your fabric

We have plenty of teal fabrics on offer, including rich jewel tone velvets like the one shown above on our Ambassador sofa. Or why not look to textured or patterned materials like this gorgeous Morris & Co print shown on our Georgian wing chair above. Visit your nearest destination showroom and explore a world of wonderful fabrics and leathers. Our design consultants will be delighted to help you create something totally unique for your home.

Creating a colour scheme

Colours that work well with teal include white or cream, pink, coral and darker shades of blue such as navy. We particularly like matching this colour with gold accessories for the ultimate in luxury.
